She has always been very popular with visitors and we have refused many chances to sell her. We would not sell her now but we have five female descendants of her to carry on for us that we prize highly. Selling at foot is her 1963 white daughter, calved May 7th that is a show prospect. She was rebred August 1st to Kickapoo Mohawk Chief. These Jealousys have always been good cattle.

THE "COUNTRY BOYS" SHORTHORN SALE

COMMENTS FROM THE SALE MANAGER -

This is the 2nd Annual offering made by the "Country Boys" at Carroll, Iowa and last year's event proved to be one of the good sale attractions of the season. It is a pleasure to recommend the offering again this year because the "Country Boys" group has grown from three to five, all good cattlemen and all maintain good strong farm herds of registered Short-horns, with one purpose in mind and that's to make money on them.

Donald L. Obrecht & Son, feature the get and services of Kair Red Gauntlet, Kickapoo Serenade, Elbrlaw Dazzling Prince 2d and Aberfeldy Eclipse, member of the Best 10 Head at last fall's Chicago International Show.

Lloyd W. Obrecht & Son are selling their senior herd sire, Scotsdale Millwood and they are featuring the get and services of Scotsdale Somerset by Scotsdale Planet. They have also just recently returned from Canada where they purchased Scotsdale Ungava, the first son of Naemoor Escort, 1962 reserve supreme champion at Perth.

Lloyd H. Davis, features the get of Kickapoo Mohawk Chief, the sire of his Chicago International sale champion heifer. This fine group of females carries the valuable service of the 1962 Chicago International Top selling bull, Northwood Red Standard by the $12,500 Bapton Red Robin.

Glen Struve, sells 4 head by K A Cagarac by the $50,000 Bapton Constructor. He is also featuring the get and services of K A Engineer by Louada Aristocrat.

Johnson Bros. feature the get and services of Kickapoo Marshall Chief and Kickapoo Keynote.

New and old breeders alike, will find real foundation material in the bulls and females that are being offered in this sale.

Come early on sale morning, to inspect the entire offering, or better yet, stop in at the farms prior to the sale and see what the "Country Boys" are selling this year. You'll never find a better opportunity to improve your own herd than right now and you can do something about it at Carroll, Iowa on Monday, December 9th.
